Vocabulary

- representative: someone elected to act for others.
- Speaker of the House of Representatives: The leader of the House of Representatives. He or she directs all activities on the House floor, including recognizing members who attempt to speak or make a motion and appointing members to committees that review all bills. The Speaker is third in line for the presidency after the vice president.
- will to succeed: desire or determination to reach a goal.
- persuasion: the power to convince someone or to cause someone to believe or do something in a certain way.

Activity: Mr. Sam
15-20 minutes

Ask students to spend five minutes at the beginning of class reflecting on their future career goals. Provide the prompt “When I grow up, I want to be…” Share and discuss their answers.

Introduce students to “Mr. Sam” and display the image Mr. Sam Rayburn, Speaker of the House.

Share:

- Sam Rayburn was elected to the Texas House of Representatives when he was 24 years old.
- In 1911, at age 29, Mr. Sam was elected Speaker of the House—the youngest Speaker in Texas history.
- In 1913, Mr. Sam was elected to the United States House of Representatives by the Texas 4th District. He served in the U.S. House for 48 years—through eight different presidencies, two World Wars, and the Great Depression.
- Mr. Sam was elected Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives ten times, serving for a total of 17 years. At this point, he remains the longest serving Speaker in American history.
- Mr. Sam was a trusted advisor to Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and John F. Kennedy. He was also a mentor to Lyndon B. Johnson.
“This was pretty good going for a poor country boy, born the eighth child of 11 in the Tennessee hills and raised on 40 acres in Texas. With nothing to do by chop cotton and read history books, young Rayburn had picked his career before he was 10. He built it on $25, hard work, and the will to succeed.”

Ask: What problems or obstacles did Sam Rayburn overcome to meet his goal?

[Answers may include: poverty, many siblings meant money and attention were likely stretched, he was raised in the country and not a city which usually meant that education and other resources were harder to find, he worked in the fields at a young age.]

Ask: According to this newspaper article, Sam Rayburn built his success on what three things?

[$25, hard work, and the will to succeed]

Context: As a very young man, Sam Rayburn knew he wanted to represent his fellow citizens in the House of Representatives. “Mr. Sam,” as he was called by many, was known to welcome his constituents, or voters, into his own home in Bonham, Texas. In his sitting room, Rayburn and his fellow citizens discussed their interests, local needs, and the politics of the day.

Although his work in Washington, D.C. solidified his place in history, Rayburn always maintained his interest in the family farm and in the work of his 900-acre ranch. He remained rooted in family and the land, and this kept him relatable to the voters in his district.
Sam Rayburn’s home outside of Bonham, Texas, was completed in 1916.
Activity: Vote for Me!
20 minutes

Discuss the similarities and differences between the House and the Senate. Have students choose to run for either a House or Senate seat. Tell students to build a campaign featuring a slogan, a poster, and an explanation of why they’re running for the House/Senate seat. Allow class time for presentations.

Activity Quotes: Mr. Sam, A Lesson in Leadership

★ “You cannot lead people by trying to drive them. Persuasion and reason are the only ways to lead them. In that way the Speaker has influence and power in the House. In carrying out his philosophy of leadership, Mr. Rayburn drew on vast reserves of personal friendships and loyalties among colleagues in both parties. Other helpful assets included a reputation for unswerving veracity, massive integrity and consistent fairness, a personality devoid of pretension and a relaxed sometimes earthy, sense of humor.”

★ Representative Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, Speaker of the House in the 80th and 83rd Republican Congress, speaks of his Democratic opposite number invariably as “our beloved Speaker” and “my close personal friend.” He said, “Having occupied the office of Speaker for four years, I am aware of its great responsibilities, its pressures, and its anxieties. The fact that Sam Rayburn has executed the duties of his office with unflailing fairness and courtesy to the Members on both sides of the aisle is a living testimonial to the breadth of his vision and the integrity of his character.”

★ Representative Jack B. Brooks of Texas: “None of the thousands of Members of the House of Representatives who have served with Sam Rayburn have been untouched by his personal example of dedication to freedom and his love for our democracy. None of the millions of Americans now living are without some benefit from Sam Rayburn’s devotion to the well-being of each of us.”
