DID YOU KNOW? Casa Navarro State Historic Site, a National Historic Landmark, is important as the home of Tejano statesman José Antonio Navarro (1795–1871). Navarro fought for Hispanic civil rights under four nations’ flags—Spain, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, and the United States. He signed the Texas Declaration of Independence and helped write the Texas State Constitution.