DID YOU KNOW? “Frisch Auf!” is a German phrase meaning “freshen up,” something the Kreisches and their friends may have shouted before enjoying a cold drink at their brewery.

On the family’s Frisch Auf banner, the phrase is surrounded by a wreath of oak leaves and acorns. Oak trees can easily be found around the Kreisches’ home on the Bluff.

DID YOU KNOW? Monument Hill honors the soldiers who were killed during the Dawson and Mier Expeditions (1842–1843) while defending the Republic of Texas. Many parts of the monument have special symbolism:

- The star at the top represents Texas, the Lone Star State.
- The images of the mural tell the story of the Mier Expedition, one of the conflicts in which Texas soldiers were killed.
- The bronze figure is a guardian angel who stands guard over the soldiers' grave.
DID YOU KNOW? In 1849, German immigrant Heinrich Ludwig Kreische purchased 172 acres of land including the Dawson/Mier tomb, now known as Monument Hill. Master stonemason Kreische built a three-story house for his family. In the 1860s, he utilized the spring water from the ravine below his house and started one of the first commercial breweries in Texas.
