DID YOU KNOW? Step into the warm and welcoming world of one of Texas’ best known statesmen, Sam Rayburn. A powerful and influential national politician in the 20th century, Rayburn served in the U.S. Congress for 48 years, holding the position of speaker for 17 years. His 1916 home, now the Sam Rayburn House State Historic Site, preserves his real stories with original furnishings, candid photographs, and personal belongings.
HISTORY AT HOME
#TXHistoryAtHome

Historic Homes

□ Statesman
□ Politician
□ U.S. Congress
□ Speaker
□ Representative
□ Legislature

□ Texas House
□ U.S. House
□ Democrat
□ Washington, D.C.
□ Lyndon B. Johnson
□ John F. Kennedy

□ Majority Leader
□ Bonham
□ Cotton
□ Corn
□ Sorghum
□ Cattle

SAM RAYBURN HOUSE
STATE HISTORIC SITE
Bonham, Texas

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
REAL PLACES TELLING REAL STORIES
thc.texas.gov
DID YOU KNOW? Tractors made plowing and planting fields much easier and faster than plows drawn by mules or oxen. This is Mr. Sam's tractor, a 1948 International Harvester, McCormick Farmall Model “H” tractor.